What is the Navigating Our Rights (NOUR) Project?

Illuminating the Path through
Ontario's Legal Systems

The Navigating Our Rights (NOUR) Project is a two-year Legal Service Delivery initiative funded by the Law Foundation of Ontario to increase access to justice by helping newcomers understand their legal rights and connect with legal services.

Legal Information, NOT Legal Advice

Importance of NOUR

NOUR supports newcomers who face multiple barriers, including discrimination, language barriers, limited funds, and the complexities of the Canadian legal system.

Who We Serve?

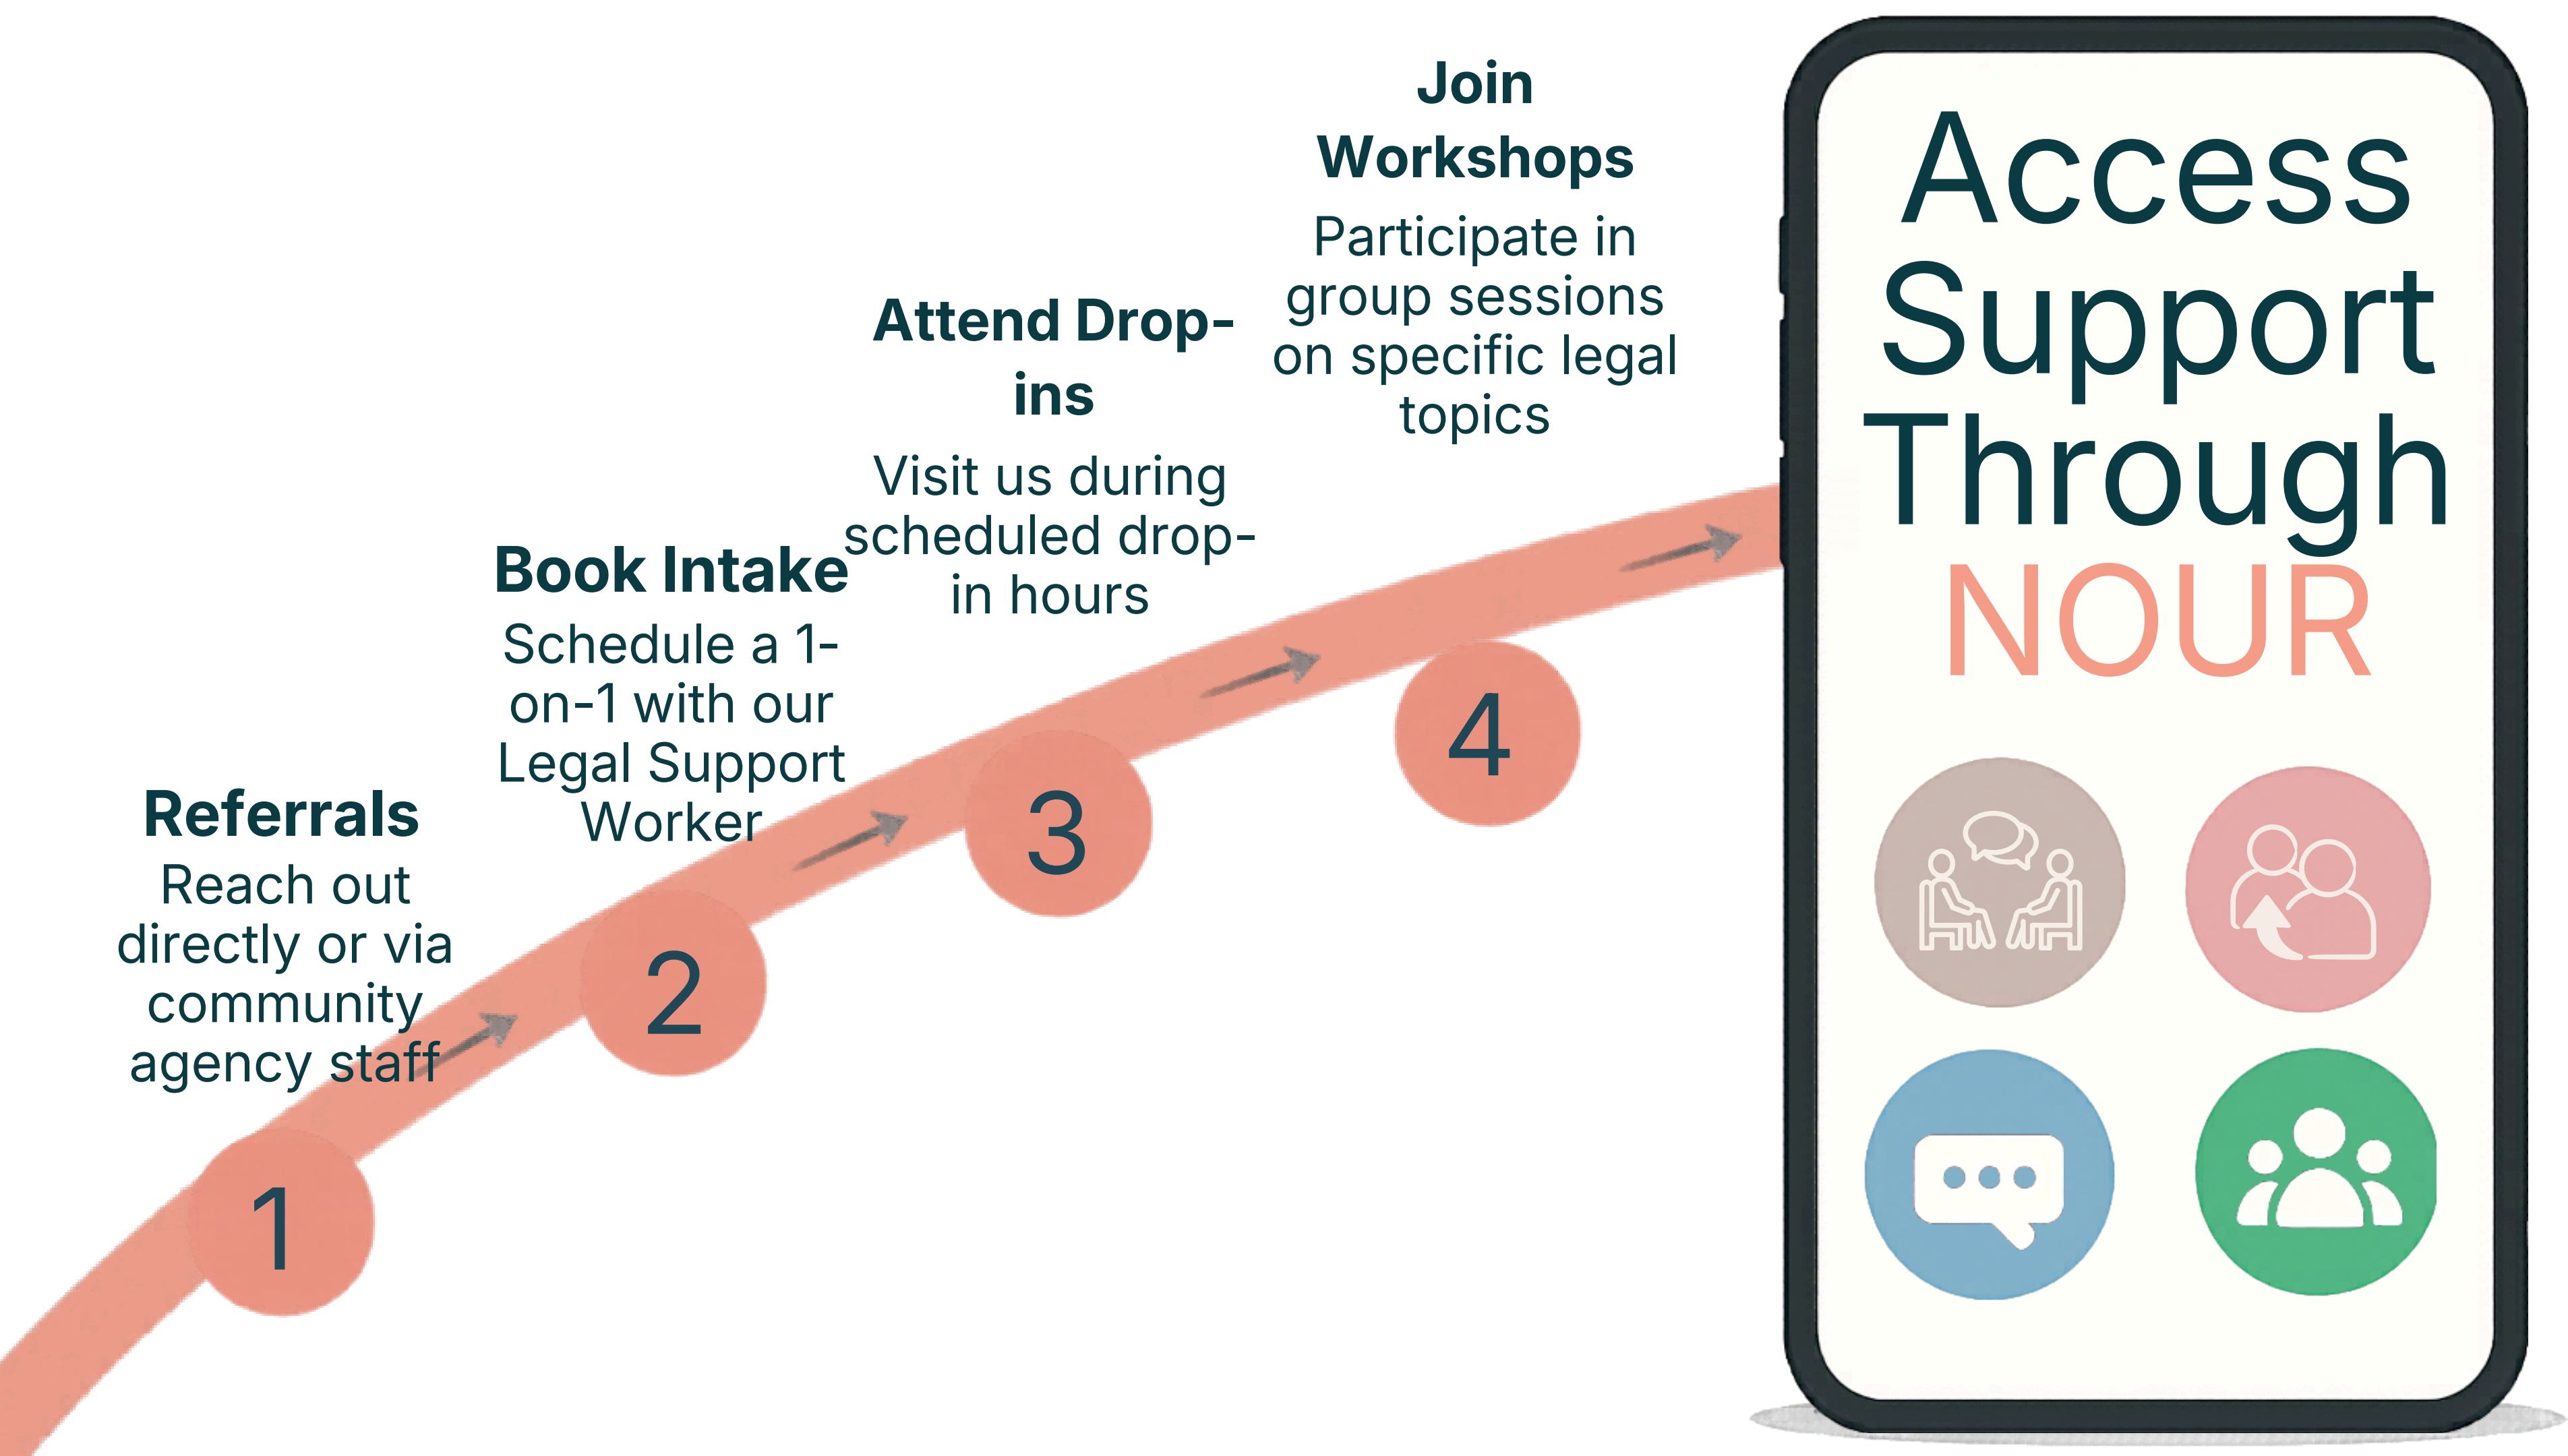

Do we serve only newcomer women from Arab and African countries? We expanded our services to:

- Any Individual seeking accurate information and safe referrals.
- Any Individual who is unsure where to start or whom to trust.
- Any Individual navigating complex legal systems in Ontario.

Legal Topics NOUR Covers

1. Family Law
2. Employment and Workplace Rights
3. Disability Law
4. Landlord and Tenant Law
5. Immigration Law
6. Gender-Based Violence and Safety
7. Wills and Estates
8. Human Rights and Discrimination
9. Criminal Law (Basic)
